Dear Editors,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to submit my manuscript entitled "The Role of Forensic Linguistics in Investigating and Disclosing Language Crimes on Social Media Platforms" for consideration for publication in Theory and Practice in Language Studies. Please find the manuscript attached.

Additionally, as per your suggestion, I would like to recommend the following individuals as potential reviewers for the manuscript:

1. Prof. Dr. Irwan Abdullah

Position: Professor in Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia

Email: irwan.fib@ugm.ac.id2. Prof. Dr. Zaenuddin Hudi Prasojo, M.A

Position: Professor in Institut Agama Islam Negeri Pontianak, Indonesia

Email: zaestain@yahoo.com

I trust that these scholars have the necessary expertise in the field and would provide valuable insights into the paper. However, I fully understand that the final decision regarding reviewers rests with you.

Thank you very much for considering my manuscript. I look forward to your feedback.

Best regards,

Dear author,

(1) Grammatical errors/incorrect usages/spelling errors are found in the paper.

For example:

The research indicates that revealing criminal cases is not confined to conventional methods, such as collecting material evidence, but can also be documented through conversations and language utterances on social media.

not only

This study is limited to information sources from two social media platforms representing violations and crimes

information sources representing violations and crimes from two social media platforms

Please check the paper again, word by word, sentence by sentence!

(2) Please check the usage of the "the third person" in Asna Ntelu and Ellyana Hintu's biographies.

Please send it again.

Sincerely,

Ms Linda Zhao,

Dear Editor TPLS

Thank you for your feedback on my manuscript. I appreciate the detailed review and your guidance in improving its quality.

I have addressed the issues raised in your comments:

1. Grammatical Errors and Incorrect Usages:

- The sentences highlighted have been revised for clarity and correctness.
- I have conducted a thorough review of the entire manuscript, checking for grammatical errors, incorrect usages, and spelling errors, as suggested.

2. Third-Person Usage in Biographies:

- The biographies of Asna Ntelu and Ellyana Hinta have been reviewed and adjusted to ensure proper usage of the third person.

The revised manuscript is attached to this email. Please let me know if further revisions are needed.

Thank you for your time and support. I look forward to your feedback.
